$300,000 IN PUBLICITY

THE Mississippi Advertising Commission has just released the figures on the newspaper publicity secured for the state by the part the American Legion played in the parade at the Los Angeles National Convention of the Legion. The value of proven publicity was $221,000, and an additional $85,000 estimated, making a total of over $500,000 worth of publicity gained through newspapers alone for the state. This publicity does not take into consideration the additional publicity received through 152 radio broadcasts, news reels picture. The same woman. Mrs. Caroline Dale Snedecker Addresses

Bay-Waveland Garden Club held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock, at Hotel Reed, with Mrs. George R. Rea, president, in the chair and Mrs. E. Mogabgab,

Feature of the evening was the talk by Mrs. Caroline Dale Snedecker, of Connecticut, who spends each winter in Bay St. Louis, visiting her relatives, the Owen Crawfords. The subject of her address was "Flowers," a resume and parts of which will appear in The Echo next week, due to lack of room and its length.

P. T. A. MEETING OF CENTRAL SCHOOL.

The P. T. A. met in regular meeting in the auditorium of the Bay Central High School, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. A. T. Terry, the president, was in the chair. Miss Loretta Smith, the secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting. Mrs. H. B. Weston gave the treasurer's report. All present were glad to learn that the association had been presented with a Gold Star Membership Certificate from the State Committee.

The program was introduced by short talk from Mrs. W. S. Speer, who presented Miss May Edwards as the main speaker for the aftermessage on the subject of, "The Value of Good Reading."

After the program all were invited by the fourth grade teacher, Miss Douglas and seven grand children. Temple, assisted by her grade mothers. A very enjoyable hour was spent socially.
